President's Message

At our September competition I announced that Dick Lee had resigned from the club due to a major health issue. Here, I'm going to talk about the changing of the guard in Light and Shadow. Dick joins a long roster of those who have been privileged to serve, and then retire from office, in this marvelous old club that dates back to 1938. Our historically oldest member is Gordy Hagen who joined 38 years after that (in 1957) and who was our President for three years. Gordy still competes but chooses not to hold office anymore.

In recent years it is the newer members who have been tapped to fill most vacant offices. Barbara Dawson volunteered to become our new Treasurer and we have happily accepted that offer. Barbara has already set up our new account and has paid the first of many judges she will deal with. I asked Nancy Asquith to take the vacant Refreshments Chair job and she also has begun that duty. Other office holders whose tenure started this year are: Chris Cassell (Print Assistant), Bob Diamond (Acting Webmaster), Ed Gauci (Print VP, 6C Print Rep., Set-up Chair), Claudia Peterson (Secretary), Louis van Zijl (Set-up Assistant), and John Zimmerman (Membership Chair).

For next year we will need to make some adjustments. For example Ed Gauci has a huge job just dealing with prints for both club and 6C. So we really need someone to step up and become the Set-up Chair. Also we can make a distinction between those who actively want to hold a particular office and those who are willing to do a job "if no one else will." I am an example of that distinction. Two years ago, I wanted to be the new President when John Heilman left the club. At present, I'm proud of the changes that have occurred during my watch, but quite willing to see someone else take on the job. We always benefit when someone with fresh ideas comes along to reinvigorate the way we do things.

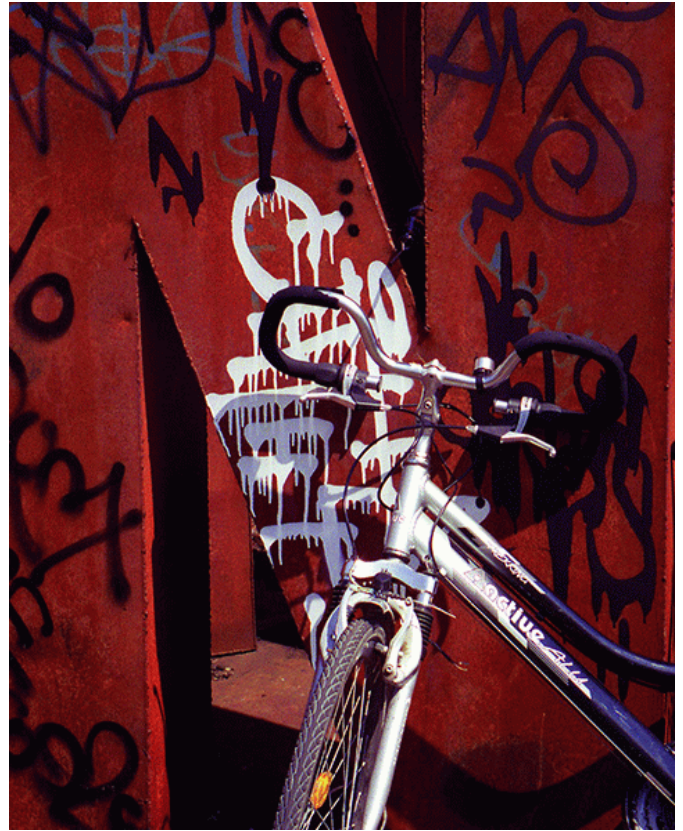

In the coming month, I'm going to contact each office holder individually vis-à-vis next year's administration. We will need to get this in place by November so that we can announce the new office holders at our Year-end meeting in December. You will all be hearing more on this topic later.

Jim Hawkins
